Read the following passage to answer the given question (7)

As I walk, alone and lonely, on the streets around my small apartment, I feel a bond with virtually everyone I see: the elderly man struggling to walk up the stoop (a man who finds even the most basic tasks challenging), the child playing with a soccer ball (a blithe boy, experiencing easy joy), and even the wrinkled woman stationed behind the cash register of the convenience store, where she seems to be eight days a week (a hard worker facing a daily struggle to make a living). My own identity feels lost, wrapped up in the lives of others. And yet I realize that as I struggle to identify myself, I feel closer to the world around me and less alone.

7. The author mentions that the woman in the convenience store seems to be there "eight days a week" in order to:
- A) suggest that she makes her home at the store
 - B) indicate that she is merely part of the author's imagination
 - C) argue that convenience store workers have easy lives
 - D) highlight how hard she must work to earn a living
